The President of the Panel has made an interim order<sup>1</sup> in response to an application for interim orders dated 21 August 2023 by Mr Desmond Mullan in relation to the affairs of Bullseye Mining Limited (Bullseye).

In summary, the interim order restrains Emerald Resources NL (Emerald) from processing any acceptances received from certain Bullseye shareholders under Emerald's current takeover bid for Bullseye.

The interim order has effect until the earliest of further order of the President (or, once appointed, the Panel), determination of the proceedings and 2 months from the date of the interim order.

<sup>1</sup> BACKGROUND: An interim order is designed to maintain the status quo until the Panel can consider the application in detail. It may be made by the President or a sitting Panel. Often a sitting Panel has not been appointed at the stage of considering the making of an interim order. An interim order does not indicate that the Panel has decided to conduct proceedings or necessarily indicate the merits of an application for a declaration of unacceptable circumstances.
